Cookies

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer by the websites you visit. They are widely used in order to make websites more efficient as well as to provide information to the owners of the site. They allow me to provide you with the best possible browsing experience, thus understanding the way you use our site. Some cookies have already been set. You may delete or block cookies, but parts of our site won't work without them. By using my website, you accept the use of these cookies.

Use of Cookies

I use cookies on my Website as they make it easier for you to log on to and use my Website during future visits. They also allow me to monitor Website traffic, enhance functionality and to personalize the content of my Website for you. You can set up your computer to reject the cookies although, if you do so, you may not be able to use certain features on my Website.

Types of cookies I use

Like most websites, the sketcher art uses session cookies and persistent cookies. Neither session cookies nor persistent cookies collect any personally identifiable information.

Session cookies

I use session cookies, which last only during your visit (your 'session') and they are deleted when you close your browser. These simply enable me to identify that the same person is moving from page to page.

Persistent cookies

I also use certain cookies that are persistent. These remain on your computer after you have visited my site, meaning that my site can remember your settings when you revisit me. For example, it may be able to remember some of your searches on my website. I then set persistent cookies, so I don't have to ask you the same question again next time you visit my website. Persistent cookies last for a specific pre-defined period unless they are deleted. Some of my cookies are applied by my advertising partners to help manage my online advertising. These cookies enable me to learn which advertisements attract customers to my website and help me manage my advertising spend by only using adverts and websites that prove to be effective. The information that I collect, and share is anonymous and not personally identifiable. It does not contain your name, address, telephone number, or email address. Similarly, I also use Google Analytics to allow me to track how popular our site is and to record visitor trends over time such as tracking which pages users visit.

Most web browsers allow some control of most cookies through the browser settings. To find out more about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set on your computer and how to manage and delete them, visit www.allaboutcookies.org.

In all cases, during your first visit on my website, I always ask for your consent to use the cookies to the extent where I consider it unnecessary for my website's good functionality.

Collection of information through automated means

During your visit on this website, I collect information through certain automated means, by using technologies like the cookies, web server logs and web beacons.

It is also probable that I may use a third-party web analytics services on the present page, my social media networking pages or my mobile applications. Service providers who manage these services use technologies like the cookies, web server logs and web beacons to help me analyze the way visitors use this page. All information collected by using these means (including the location of the IP address) is disclosed to these service providers, who use these pieces of information to evaluate the use of the website. During your visit to my website, I kindly ask you to provide me, through a positive action, with your consent to this processing as well as the use of cookies as described above.

Targeted advertising

I may do not assign my advertisements to third-party ad networks.

How I use the information I collect by automated means

I may use the information collected through automated means on this page to transmit personalized content, for market research, data analysis and system management purposes, so as to determine whether you have visited me in the past or whether you are a new visitor, and to comply with my legal obligations, policies and procedures, including compliance with the relevant industry standards and enforcement of my terms and conditions. I may also use the information in other ways about which special notice will be provided at the time of collection.

Security and confidentiality of personal data

I have made significant efforts to take all preventive measures to maintain the confidentiality and security of personal data and to prevent the distortion, damage, destruction, and their accessibility by unauthorized third parties. Technical and organizational security measures include cutting-edge technology. I also maintain appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards designed to protect the personal information you provide from accidental, illegal or unauthorized destruction, loss, alteration, access, disclosure, or use.

However, I cannot control the risk associated with the operation of the Internet and therefore I draw your attention to the existence of potential risks related to its use and operation.

Your rights and choices
